▣ PROFILE

My passion is and always has been frontend development. I love the instant visual feedback that is unique to frontend development.

I am an open-source fanatic with over 140+ merged pull requests in the past 12 months alone into many, many, many open source repositories.

I write professionally for logrocket and my own personal blog.

I have over 20 years of experience working on some exceptional frontend pieces of work for companies such as waitrose, the Volvo ocean race, the Scottish and Northern Irish governments and many others.
